Investments through the Stock Connect programme may be subject to additional risks, including liquidity, operational, clearing, settlement, market suspension, custody and quota limitation risks.

The Fund does not have any guarantees and the value of investments may rise or fall. You may not get back the original amount of money you invested. In addition, the Fund may be subject to the following risks:

Market risk - The Fund invests in equities or equity-related securities, and these can rise or fall due to a number of factors affecting individual companies and local or global stock markets.

Emerging markets risk - Investing in emerging markets carries a higher risk (e.g. larger price fluctuations) than a developed market. Some of the investments may be subject to low liquidity, making them hard to buy or sell at short notice.

Operational risk - The inability to make timely security purchases or disposals due to administrative/settlement problems may result in missed potential gains or undesirable losses to the Fund.

Exchange rate risk - Changes in foreign currency exchange rates may adversely affect the value of the investments held in the Fund. Shareholders investing in a currency other than the Fund's base currency should be aware that exchange rate fluctuations may affect the value of their investments.

Currency hedged share class risk - Hedging transactions are designed to reduce, as much as possible, the currency risk for investors. However, there is no guarantee that the hedging strategies will be totally successful and no hedging strategy can eliminate currency risk entirely.

Sector-specific risk - The Fund holds a concentrated portfolio focusing on a consumer theme and will be more volatile than a diversified portfolio.

Regional risk - The Fund invests mainly in countries of the Asia ex-Japan region and tends to be more volatile than global funds.

Foreign investment risk - Some countries in Asia Region may prohibit or impose restrictions on investments by foreign investors and such restrictions may change from time to time.
